SATURDAY MORNING DEC. 13, 1861.

☞ The Message accompanies this sheet.

The News.

Our naval and Military forces are now doing an excellent business. The naval forces and the troops in the south are proceeding very carefully and safely. The rebels on the Potomac are moving away from the federal forces. Our small naval and military force has used up the braggart Bragg's forts in the bay of Pensacola. Our troops with a flotilla are about to make a descent down the Mississippi. Parson Brownlow is smiting right and left among the rebels of Tennessee. Vessels with supplies for the rebels are more likely to go into loyal than rebel ports. Charleston authorities are in the predicament of not knowing whether it is best to burn or surrender the city—(by all means burn it—wipe out the scrofulous concern)—and our forces are now within shelling distance of the defences of Savannah. With the exception of Missouri, everything is working well. The difficulty there is, we cannot catch Price and his gang. He is affected with a running that seems to be constitutional. Government will sustain the seizure of the traitors Slidell and Mason. We are gratified greatly with the last news.

[From the San Francisco Herald of the 6th.]

The Remains of Col. Baker.

At nine o'clock, yesterday morning, Alfred Baker, eldest son of the deceased Senator, Superintendent Stevens, his son-in-law, Naval Officer Farwell, formerly his private secretary, Col. Stephenson and a few other intimate friends of the family, proceeded in carriages to the steamship Golden Gate, and took charge of the remains of Col. E. D. Baker, which arrived yesterday morning from New York under care of Abel Guy and Col. Haraszthy of this city, and Mr. Drew of Oregon.

Messrs. Rector, Corbett and Morton, the Committee from Oregon to request that the remains might be taken to Oregon for interment, also were present. The friends then proceeded with the remains to the undertakers.

Notwithstanding the utmost privacy was observed, a large number of persons followed the hearse to the undertaker's. There, in a private room, with none present but the immedidate friends, the large deal case containing the coffin was was opened. Its lid bore the inscription:

THE REMAINS OF COL. E. D. BAKER, KILLED IN BATTLE NEAR BALL'S BLUFF, OCTOBER 21, 1861.

Within the deal case was the metallic coffin, of rosewood color, with silver handles on either side. An oval plate with "Col. E. D. Baker, killed in battle near Ball's Bluff, Virginia, October 21, 1861," engraved thereon was on the top, and on each side of it two wreaths of immortelles. The metallic lid was then removed, and the body, clad in uniform as Colonel of the California Regiment, recognized. The lid was then replaced and the remains were conveyed to the house of Mr. Stevens, on Dupont street, near Lombard, where they will remain until the 11th, the day of burial.

The Alta of the 8th says that the remains of Col. Baker are to be laid out in State on Monday at Platt's Musical Hall. The funeral is to take place on the 11th, and it is supposed will be one of the most important pageants ever witnessed in San Francisco.

We have had no advices from Messrs. Corbett and Rector, by the "Cortes," a committee sent by citizens of Oregon, to claim the remains of Col. Baker. We hardly hope for their success; though we feel that Oregon should be the last resting place of the deceased Senator.

☞ Since the above was written we learn from a private source, that the impression in San Francisco was, that the friends of Col. Baker would yield to the solicitations of our people, and permit his body to be buried at Salem, in this State.

Miles S. Griswold, Esq., is elected Representative from Pacific county, Washington Territory, to fill the place of Baily, resigned. [He was ten days in reaching Olympia—and had to swim some of the way.]

ARRIVAL OF THE CORTES.

Eastern Dates to December 5th.

All Going Right in the East!

The steamer Cortes arrived yesterday morning at 5 o'clock.

Steamship Cortes, Thos. Huntington, commander, left San Francisco Monday Dec. 9th at 4 o'clock p. m.; crossed the Columbia river bar on the 12th at 10 a. m. and arrived at Portland on the 13th at 6 a. m.

PASSENGERS.—Col. J. Steinberger & serv't, W. S. [illegible], J. J. Southard, J. Gay, J. B. Miller, Mr. Gibbs, Mrs. R. H. Turner & child, J. Lantz, J. Ross, W. Mitchell, E. D. Marshall & lady, T. Reid, D. Layton, Miss Patterson, J. Cameson, G. Wetzel, M. C. Friendlander, J. T. Watkins, W. F. & Co's Messenger, and 67 others.

[From the dispatches to the Sacramento Union.]

QUINCY, Ill., Nov. 29th.—Letters from members of the California regiment at Richmond show that most of those supposed to have been killed at Bull's Bluff are prisoners.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—The Richmond Enquirer has news that Pensacola is evacuated, the navy yard destroyed, five United States vessels riddled, and Gen. Bragg is out hunting more troops.

Our government has taken possession of the crops at Port Royal. The slaves are securing them. What is not wanted for the troops will be sent to New York.

The rebels are falling back from the Potomac before the slow advance of the Union troops.

The federal forces have taken possession of St. Helen's Inlet north of Port Royal, without firing a gun. The rebel guns had been run off.

Despatches announce that the federal flag was flying at Tybee Island. This is within mortar distance of Fort Pulaski, and the approaches to Savannah are completely stopped.

Bryan Charra, from Porto Rico, has been taken with dispatches stamped by the Consul at Charleston, for Lord Lyons, which have been sent to Mr. Seward.

Price is calling for 50,000 more troops at Neosho, Missouri, and says if they are not had he fears the Southern cause is lost, and the Lincoln Hessians will control the State.

MISSOURI AFFAIRS.—It is said that Lexington is again in the hands of the rebels.—McCulloch's forces are on the way to Arkansas. The rebel Rains occupies Springfield. If Price cannot get more troops he will divide his army into guerilla bands.

The gun boat expedition, under General Halleck, will go down the Mississippi in two weeks.

The inhabitants of several counties in Eastern Virginia have declared themselves loyal and their ports will be open for trade. Northampton county is occupied by Federal troops.

Vessels went from Havre, France, loaded with supplies for rebel troops, have returned with their cargoes.

It is said that 10,000 volunteers are called in Canada to defend the frontier.

Capt. Goodwin, of the slaver Erie, is to be hung in February.

Major Sutherland is dead.

A Canadian steamer, with supplies for the rebels, has been captured off the coast of Maine.

Jim Lane delivered an anti-slavery speech in Boston, Nov. 30th.

The President will hold Slidell and Mason; says Wilkes did right, and ought to have taken the steamer.

Ely, prisoner at Richmond, writes that he will take his seat in the House.

Reports from Richmond say that the rebels are terribly excited concerning Federal operations on the coast. Southern troops declare they will go home and leave Virginia to her fate.

By request of G. D. Prentice, Benham and Gwin have been released from confinement at Lafayette.

The Secretary of the Navy says, that Wilkes did right in capturing Mason and Slidell, and if a too generous forbearance was exercised in not capturing the steamer, it must not be considered a precedent in future similar cases.

Bright intends to take his seat in the Senate. Powell is also in Washington. A committee will examine into their cases.

The U. S. steamer Iroquois was not permitted to stop at Laguira, unless in distress. She proceeded on.

Another rich prize was brought into Brooklyn 25th October.

Price says he shall make Kansas his future field of operations. He has 15,000 men. McCulloch quarreled with him and left.

Col. Kerrigan, of 12th New York regiment, has been tried by court martial for treason, convicted, and ordered to be shot. The sentence is approved by the President. Kerrigan is a member of Congress.

SOUTHERN EXPEDITION.—Advices say that Tybee is not occupied by our troops. The U. S. flag was flying from the light house. Beaufort was to be occupied on the 26th. The expedition South is for Fernandina, Florida. It is said our troops have landed at the mouth of Ashepoo river. The U. S. flag is floating at St. Helena. Floyd has gone into winter quarters in Virginia.

WHEELING, Dec. 3d.—In Convention, Mr. Holman offered a resolution declaring emancipation in the State of Kanawha; which is under discussion.

The Nashville has arrived in England.

Congressional Proceedings.

QUINCY, Dec. 2d—P. M.

Congress met to-day at noon.

In the Senate, the Vice President called that body to order at noon; forty members were present.

Twelve o'clock was fixed upon as the hour for the commencement of the daily sessions.

Trumbull, Hale and Latham, were appointed a Committee to wait upon the President.

Trumbull gave notice that he will introduce a bill to-morrow to confiscate the property of rebels, and give freedom to persons in the slave States.

Wilson gave notice of a bill to abolish the distinction between the regular and volunteer forces.

An informal recess was taken.

In the House, 114 members answered the roll call.

Sargent and Phelps of California; Hooper of Massachusetts; Wilson, of Iowa; Bernheisel, of Utah, and Cradlebaugh, of Nevada, were sworn.

Maynard, of Tennessee, after some discussion, was sworn in.

A Committee was appointed to inform the President that both Houses had a quorum and were ready to proceed to business.

Hickman presented a certificate from the Provisional Government of North Carolina, dated at Hatteras. He asked that Foster's claims might be considered.

Foster's claim as member from North Carolina was referred to a Committee.

Watts, a delegate from New Mexico, was sworn in.

Blair, of Virginia, successor to Senator Carlile, was sworn in.

Segar, of Accomac county, Va., claimed his seat.

Richardson, of Illinois, moved that he be sworn in, as the people in Eastern Virginia, where Segar was elected, had returned to their allegiance.

After some discussion, Segar's case was referred to the Committee on Elections.

QUINCY, Dec. 3d.—Nothing was done in the Senate yesterday except that a Committee was appointed to wait on the President.

The Committee reported that the message would be sent in at noon to-morrow, December 3d.

In the House, yesterday afternoon, Mr. Calvert presented a memorial of Beach, of Virginia, asking to be admitted.

Several new members were sworn in, including Bennett, a Delegate from Colorado, and Wallace of Washington Territory.

A memorial was presented that Low of California be admitted as an additional member.

Lovejoy offered a resolution that the thanks of Congress be presented to Capt. Wilkes.

Edgerton moved, as a substitute, that a gold medal be presented. Accepted.

Lovejoy's resolution was passed.

Blair of Missouri offered a resolution to expel John W. Reid from the Fifth District in Missouri, as he had joined the rebels. Passed.

Colfax offered a resolution, that whereas Col. Corcoran had been confined in a felon cell at Richmond, Mason of Virginia be confined in a similar cell at Fort Warren. Passed unanimously.

Ellis offered a resolution to the effect that as the United States was engaged in a war to put down rebellion, and that as it was a military necessity, the President has the right, as Commander-in-chief, to issue an order for the emancipation of all slaves of rebel masters.

The question was postponed one week.

Campbell gave notice that he would call up the following resolution next Tuesday:

"That in legislating to meet the exigencies of rebellion, Congress should confiscate all the property of rebels, slaves or otherwise.

Other resolutions, all aiming at emancipation and confiscation were offered and laid over.

Conklin offered a resolution inquiring into the Ball Bluff disaster.

Odell moved that as Col. Alfred M. Wood, of the 14th N. Y. regiment had been confined in a felon's cell at Richmond, John Slidell be treated similarly. Passed.

Bernheisel of Utah presented a Constitution, framed by a Convention at Salt Lake, and asks that Utah be admitted as a State into the Union.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.—In the House Dec. 3d. Maynard of Tennessee presented the credentials of Clemens, Representative elected from the Southern District of Tennessee. Referred to Committee on Election.

President's message referred to Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, and motion to print 5,000 extra copies, referred to Committee on Printing.

Dunn, of Indiana moved that H. C. Burnett of Kentucky, be expelled. Agreed.

Wickliffe, of Kentucky, made a strong Union speech, explaining the course of Burnett and other Kentucky traitors, and closed by saying that by the 25th of December no rebel government will be found on the soil of Kentucky.

In Senate, the President's message was ordered printed.

Thanks were passed to the officers and men concerned in the Port Royal victory.

Gen. McClellan is in favor of a regular exchange of prisoners.

General McClellan is moving toward Leesburg, and General Zenith and General Porter are extending their lines forward, while McDowell and Franklin are watching the enemy's center, which is growing weaker every day.

Mr. Seward was serenaded to-night. He complimented the music, and said in ten days the country would rejoice at great news.

No more recruiting for regiments will be allowed except under orders from the War Department.

The reported removal of the rebel government to Nashville is incorrect.

The Southern papers are advocating the abolishment of the elective franchise.

The fight had not been renewed at Pensacola.

The Southern Planters are said to be destroying their crops to prevent them from falling into our hands.

A conspiracy of Unionmen had been discovered in New Orleans, causing great excitement there. Many arrests had been made.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—John C Breckenridge was unanimously expelled from the Senate

Kent, Captain of the Jeff. Davis, was on board the steamer when Slidell and Mason taken.

The Sumter was at Martinique Nov. 6th, and the U. S. gunboat Iroquois was four hours behind her.

New York, Dec. 3.—Mr. Butterfield, who has been a prisoner at Charleston, has arrived and reports that the forts on Otter and Phenix islands were vacated and blown up Nov. 12th. The greatest excitement prevailed at Charleston, and a meeting was held as to the propriety of burning or surrendering the city. The Mayor was for surrendering, and so were the people generally, but the Governor said it must be burned.

The vote for Mayor of New York foots up as follows: Opdyke, 25,259; Gunther, 2[illegible]; Wood, 24,085. Opdyke was elected.

Special dispatches state that a resolution will be offered in the House punishing any officer of the army for returning fugitive slaves to masters.

F. P. Stanton still claims the seat occupied by Jim Lane in the Senate.

QUINCY, Ill., Dec. 5th.—The New York Times' special dispatch, dated Washington, December 4th, says information was received this evening that the rebels are in possession of Anandale, Fairfax county, and have a large force of cavalry.

There are twelve forts around Centreville defended by field pieces. Four regiments of the enemy lately left Centreville for Leesburg. There are 12,000 men there now.

[From the San Francisco Mirror.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 5.—Great excitement and consternation exist at Charleston and other towns south. At Charleston the rebels are burning all their cotton and rice to prevent it falling into the hands of the Federals.

At Greenville, Tennessee, two Unionists have been hung by the rebels. Their offence was bridge burning.

Parson Brownlow is making himself felt.—In East Tennessee, at the head of 3,000 men, he attacked a large rebel force, and defeated them with great slaughter. He captured ten of the rebel teamsters, with their teams and freight.

The Federal fleet have captured a ship having on board a large cargo of sugar and molasses; the vessel was trying to steal out of New Orleans when taken.

Reliable and Wonderful News from the Salmon River Mines.

We have before us a letter from Joseph Sharff to A. Hinman, dated "Florence City, Salmon River, Nov. 13th," in which he gives an account of his mining operations there last summer, and closes as follows. He is a reliable man:

"In company with Tuttle and [illegible] I purchased a gulch claim. I worked three days in the claim. The first day I washed out $108 dollars; the second, $105, and the third day, which was yesterday, or Sunday, $103, with a Rocker, and I carried my own dirt. This looks rather unreasonable for a man that never worked before, to do, but it is so, and I am satisfied that if we get our claim fairly open, that it will pay from 100 to 200 dollars per day to the hand. But this is nothing; there are some claims that pay as high as $200 dollars per day.

I think these are the richest mines that have ever been discovered, California not excepted. But there are a good many leaving here and leaving good claims, on account of provisions. The snow is about 18 inches deep now, and the pack trains have stopped running. Flour can be sold at this time for any price, even $2 00 per pound. Beans, Bacon and all provisions, a person can get any price that may be asked for them, but they cannot be had. Beef is the only thing that is here now to be sold, and that won't last long.

I think that I have struck it at last, and that I can make from 10 to 20 thousand dollars for my share, by next fall, out of our claims.

If you can get here next spring early with a stock of provisions, flour, beans and bacon, you can do well, and have a chance to get a good claim."

Respectfully yours,
JOSEPH SHARFF.

CITY.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE —The President is calm, confident, determined His Message will please all loyal citizens It will not please secessionists, and we should be sorry if it did It is of remarkable length and will be read

"It was telegraphed to the Sacramento Union This was a great achievement The Union says that "in some portions of the Message as published in our columns the meaning is obscure, doubtless owing to unavoidable errors in telegraphing This is not to be wondered at when it is considered that, in reaching here, it has to be repeated at least ten times."

We shall as we have time notice some of the leading points in the Message

FOR THE HOLIDAYS —D F Harrington has just received a large and well-selected supply of groceries direct from San Francisco Those in want of any thing in that line for Christmas and New Year, would do well to give him a call.

FOR CORVALLIS —The steamer Express will leave here for Oregon City on Monday morning at 9 o'clock, to connect with the Onward bound for Corvallis

MEETING TO NIGHT —The Young Men's Library Association meet to-night at seven o'clock at the Council Chamber An address may be expected The public are cordially invited to attend

RIVER.—The river fell at the rate of one inch per hour, yesterday.

The steamer Rival leaves for Oregon City this morning

The Cortes sails on Monday, the 16th

From our Correspondent,

OLYMPIA, Dec 9 1861.

The Legislature, both houses, made a temporary organization last Monday without a quorum, and have met and adjourned from day to day The Supreme Court has been in session during the week, and been occupied with the Capitol Bill To day at 2 o'clock, the Judges gave their decision, declaring the bill null and void Judges Hewitt and Oliphant decided against and Wyche for it Most of the legal talent of the Territory has been employed in this case This afternoon at 3 o'clock, both branches of the Legislature met with a quorum in each—17 members in the House, and 6 in the Council—and appointed committees on credentials, and adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow morning, when it is presumed a permanent organization will be made The Supreme Court will be in session some eight or ten days to come, having some fourteen cases before them

[We have full reports of the proceedings of the Washington Territory Legislature and of the Supreme Court, the publication of which, on account of the crowded state of our columns, we must defer until Monday. We have made arrangements for full accounts of the proceedings of the W T Legislature.]

THE FRESHET ALONG THE COAST —Captain Huntington of the steamer Cortes, informs us that the fresh water discharged by the different streams along the coast, is visible for the whole distance from San Francisco to the Columbia river. He also informs us that the sea as far out as twenty miles from the shore is literally covered with great quantities of drift. From this, some idea may be formed of the quantity of water discharged during the recent freshet.

Floods in the American River

SACRAMENTO, Dec 9 —The rains have caused an immense rise in the river and the levee gave way this morning. Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of those rescued from the jaws of disease, who, having regained their former health and impelled by gratitude, have [illegible] their cases and remedial agent and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The [illegible] imperiously command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practice of [illegible] passion in youth, depressed in body and mind [illegible] to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the [illegible] avocations of life, I sought the advice of [illegible] who at first regarded my disease as of [illegible] importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found, to my inexpressible horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms [illegible] more alarming in their torture, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the [illegible] would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever [illegible] my health, strength, and energy; and as a last [illegible] with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who [illegible] examining my case, prescribed some medicines which [illegible] instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of [illegible] in others, the incapability to study, and want of [illegible] the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable [illegible] night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end by [illegible] hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be [illegible]

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have [illegible] last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not quite got my strength yet, but soon will with the [illegible]. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, entirely [illegible] and never thought you would be able to [illegible] perfectly, but thought you might be able to [illegible] the pain in my back and head and [illegible] nerves so that I would not get excited and [illegible] everything. Now that you know what I suffered you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete [illegible] symptoms and the removal of those sores and [illegible] my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] emissions, which you said were [illegible] of my sickness.
